

Cambridge University Riding Club

CODE OF CONDUCT

INTRODUCTION

The Cambridge University Riding Club (CURC) is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the well-being of all its members to ensure a positive and enjoyable experience.

All those involved in CURC activities, whether they are involved as participants, coaches, officials or spectators, are therefore required to adhere to the standards of behaviour – set out within this Code of Conduct - and to support the mission of the CURC. This Code of Conduct has been developed to ensure the highest possible standards of competition and sportsmanship as well as promoting fairness, honesty and positive behaviour in relation to the conduct of all those representing CURC.

OUR COMMITMENT

CURC respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person involved in its activities. CURC is committed to team members enjoying horse riding in an environment free from discrimination, intimidation, harassment and abuse. CURC believes that it is the responsibility of all of its members to challenge discriminatory behaviour and promote equality of opportunity.

AFFILIATIONS

The Cambridge University Riding Club (CURC) is governed by the constitution of the CURC, which is registered with the University of Cambridge Proctors. This Code of Conduct is in addition, and by no means replaces, the standards set by CURC, the student's individual college and the overarching Proctor regulations.

Health and Safety Guidelines

Horse riding is a risk sport. Carelessness or irresponsible behaviour can lead to serious injury. All horses and ponies are unpredictable animals, with minds of their own and are much stronger than you.

To minimise the risks, Members of the Society must abide by the following conditions at all times when riding under the alias of the Society:

- a) All accidents must be reported. In the event of an accident at a riding stables (or on the way to the riding stables), those involved must contact the lesson coordinator ASAP and explain what has happened (curcpringhillrep@gmail.com for Springhill, and curchilltopcoordinator@gmail.com for Hilltop). The lesson coordinator will report this to the President who will complete the online accident report form on Moodle.
- b) Do not attempt to move anyone who has fallen from a horse and is unconscious or is unable to move. SEEK MEDICAL ASSISTANCE IMMEDIATELY.
- c) A well-fitting hard hat conforming to the current approved standard (SNELL E2001 or E2016, AS/NZS 3838 (2006 onwards), VG1 01.040 (2014-12), PAS015 or ASTM F1163) must be worn and the chin strap correctly adjusted and fastened at all times when mounted.
- d) Appropriate footwear with a smooth sole and small heel must be worn. Trainers and wellington boots are not suitable.
- e) All instructions given by the instructor or committee members must be followed.
- f) Do not overestimate your riding abilities. Tell the instructor, stables' staff or a Committee member if you have doubts about what you have been asked to do. You always have the right to refuse to ride the horse allocated to you but will not always be able to continue your lesson in this case.
- g) Do not put your hand or wrist through the loop of your short whip.
- h) When mounted, try to be prepared for the unexpected. Horses by their nature are nervous animals, and can shy away from the smallest of objects
- i) Always dismount correctly and from the near side if possible.
- j) Do not let your horse get too close to other horses.
- k) Always be aware of other horses and riders in the arena at the same time as yourself and respond appropriately, i.e. halt if another horse becomes out of control or a rider falls from their horse.
- l) When working in open order, be courteous to other riders and pass left shoulder to left shoulder.
- m) Never ride or handle horses under the influence of alcohol or drugs.
- n) When handling horses (e.g. tacking up, untacking, grooming), horses must be tied securely with suitable knot to loop of string (not directly to metal ring) in the yard or securely shut in stable.
- o) Never crowd a horse in his stable, maximum of 2 people at a time.

Driving

- q) When being driven by another Member of the club you must behave sensibly at all times in the car and obey the driver's instructions.
- r) It is the driver's responsibility to ensure that they have a valid UK driving license and appropriate insurance.
- s) Seat belts must be worn.

Insurance

- a) The Society is covered by the University's insurance policy for Public Liability in the event of personal injury to third parties or damage caused to their property.
- b) Members of the Society are not covered for personal injury or personal possessions.

See <http://www.admin.cam.ac.uk/offices/insurance/guidance/students.html> for more details of the University's insurance.

Competency

The Society reserves the right to refuse admission to Society activities such as lessons and competitions based on the rider's ability. The Society will not let inexperienced riders take part in activities that the Committee or instructor does not consider appropriate for the rider's level of experience.

CURC is committed to ensuring that all students are able and encouraged to participate in student activities in an atmosphere free from discrimination or fear. As such, CURC will aim to organise a range of social events that are as inclusive as possible. Members should be aware that:-

- Participation in any form of initiation or social activity is completely optional.
- They must not force others to participate in initiations and/or other social and sporting events run by the CURC and can opt-out without fear of undue pressure, reprisal or any other form of discrimination at any point.

BREACHES OF THE CODE OF CONDUCT

The CURC complaints and disciplinary procedures, detailed in the Club Constitution may be applied when a member breaches the Code of Conduct, engages in any activity that adversely affects the smooth running of the Club or brings the CURC into disrepute.

In the case of serious misconduct, the Club Executive Committee, in consultation with the Senior Treasurer, may suspend a member pending the outcome of an investigation.

WELFARE

CURC takes the welfare of its members seriously. Any member of the Team that has any concerns regarding their welfare or those of others involved in Team or Club activities can discuss these, in confidence, with the Club Welfare Officers (the lesson coordinators).
